

ENGLISH LANGUAGE SKILLS FORM FOR EXCHANGE STUDENTS

- Form must be signed by the student and the English teacher at the sending university
- To be enclosed to the Exchange Student Application Form

TAMK expects exchange students to have proficient English skills before coming to Finland.

Teaching typically involves active student participation, class discussion, project work and student presentations. It means that you must have a command of the English language equivalent of the IELTS score of 6.0, the TOEFL score of 550 (paper-based test) or 80 (internet-based test) or level B2 in European Language Levels. Other equivalent proof of your English language competency is also acceptable. We ask you and your home university to document your English skills through this language requirement form, which in words describes the required English level.

To follow courses offered in English, your English skills must as a minimum compare to the description below.

You must:

- understand general and academic topics presented in English orally and in writing
- master a varied vocabulary which enables you to participate in conversations and discussions in English
- be able to account for contents and viewpoints in different types of English texts
- articulate your viewpoints in English both orally and in writing
- be able to give a detailed, coherent oral and written account of a known topic in fluent and primarily correct English
